

OFFERING FREE CONTINUING EDUCATION

Providing Educational Seminars to our members and opening the door for new membership are some of the many goals of OSFA. Through work of our state association and The Division of EMS, the Ohio Fire Service has a premier system in place for the basic certifications, advanced certifications, and continuing education. OSFA continues to participate in the education component for all responders in the State.

Seminar Date Friday: June 1, 2018

Quail Hollow Resort

11080 Concord-Hambden Road

Painesville, Ohio 44077

Registration 8:00 am class begins at 8:30

Instructor CE

An overview of the current fire rules that went into place in January of this year. A detailed look at the new classes offered and an overview of the Fire Sub Committee.

8:30-11:30 - 3 hours Instructor CE presented by the Division of EMS Director Mel House and Chief Phil McLean, Richfield Fire Department.

EMS CE

High Reliability Patient Care Delivery

Does your service provide High Reliable Services?

Let's look at how your department measures up

Provided by University Hospital

11:30-1:00 - 1.5 hours of EMS CE presented by Dr. Don Spaner Medical Director UHEMS-I

Firefighter CE

Lost in the Fog of the Fire Ground, Size Up and Command for the Small Department

Assistant Chief Joe Pronesti, Elyria Fire Department

1:15-4:15 - 3 hours of Fire CE

This workshop relates this concept to the fireground and to helping officers avoid my mistake of "getting lost." The focus is on the critical points of size-up, reviewing case histories, and improving "vision" so officers can see through the fog of the fireground and provide a more effective and safer environment for those under their command.

This is a free seminar however you must pre-register by emailing rmosnas@gmail.com

Direct all questions to Chief Phil McLean at 330-607-5471

LUNCH PROVIDED BY UNIVERSITY HOSPITAL

